Wyo. Joint Family Support and Assistance Program schedules visits in southwest towns

CHEYENNE – The Wyoming Joint Family Support and Assistance Program team will be visiting various towns in southwestern Wyoming during the week of Sept. 13-17 to provide an opportunity for military members and their families to utilize available services.

The members of this team include representatives of Military One Source, Military and Family Life Consultant Program, Red Cross, and Our Military Kids (children and youth services provided through the U.S. Department of Agriculture). There are many services available to military families, to include counseling, financial assistance, financial planning, child activities and many others.

These services are provided free of charge, and all counseling services are confidential. Families are reminded that no appointment is necessary. All persons who are interested in the military family are cordially invited to meet with the JFSAP team.

The team will be in the following communities on the dates indicated:

- Sept. 13 in Evanston, from 6 - 8 p.m., Uinta County Library, 701 Main St.
- Sept. 14 in Kemmerer, from 10 a.m. – noon, Lincoln County Library, 519 Emerald St.
- Sept. 14 in Afton, from 5 – 6 p.m., Civic Center, 150 Washington St.
- Sept. 15 in Jackson, from 2 – 3:30 p.m., County Library, 125 Virginian Lane
- Sept. 15 in Pinedale, from 7 - 8 p.m., County Library, 155 S. Tyler Ave.

- Sept. 16 in Rock Springs/Green River, from 1 - 3 p.m., Sweetwater County Library, 300 N. 1st East
- Sept. 17 in Rawlins, from 10 a.m. – noon, Carbon County Library, 215 W. Buffalo St.

Residents of communities surrounding the above towns may feel free to attend the closest event. Please contact Rick Souza, Military and Family Life consultant, for more information at 307-287-7005 or 307-772-5362 or email charles.r.souza@healthnet.com.
