MEDIA ADVISORY: Honor Flight Wyoming makes trip to D.C. in September

CHEYENNE – Honor Flight Wyoming is a Wyoming non-profit with a mission to fly Wyoming's World War II veterans to Washington, D.C., free of charge to visit their memorials on a trip of a lifetime.

Honor Flight Wyoming has partnered with the Wyoming Veterans Commission and many veterans service organizations to provide this trip.

Attached is the veterans' schedule and a list of veterans from your area of Wyoming.

The veterans have signed a personal release and are available for you to interview about the trip.

Guardians make an $800 donation to travel with the group and provide assistance to the veterans on a 3:1 ratio.

For more information call the Wyoming Veterans Commission, 307-772-5145.
