Wyoming National Guard brings the Golden Knights to UW

CHEYENNE – The U.S. Army’s Golden Knights parachute team will bring the game ball to the University of Wyoming vs. U.S. Air Force Academy football game Saturday, in Laramie, courtesy of the Wyoming National Guard.

A Wyoming Air National Guard C-130 will drop the parachutists onto Jonah Field a few minutes before the noon kick off. The match up with the academy is UW’s annual Military Appreciation Day. The school is saluting veterans and military members during the game.

The Golden Knights travel expenses were funded by the Wyoming Army National Guard’s Recruiting and Retention Command.
