Military and Veterans Day at the Legislature activities

CHEYENNE – Military and Veterans Day at the Wyoming State Legislature is scheduled for Thursday.

All military, veterans, and family members are invited to participate in the various events.

The day begins with a meet and greet with Wyoming's elected officials in the Wyoming Capitol Rotunda from 9-10 a.m.

The group then moves to the Senate and House galleries at 10 a.m., where they will be recognized for their service to Wyoming and the nation. Members of the Wyoming Military Department's Readiness Support team will receive individual recognition for their work to support deployed and returning National Guard members, their families, and employers.

A complimentary lunch for military, veterans and family members will be offered at American Legion Post #6, 2001 E. Lincolnway, at 11:30 a.m.

In the afternoon, the Wyoming Veterans Commission will host their quarterly commission meeting, at 1 p.m. at American Legion Post #6. Key topics on the agenda include legislative initiatives for 2011, remarks by the director of the Cheyenne VA Medical Center, and review of the 2011 supplemental budget request.

For more information, contact the Wyoming Veterans Commission at 307-772-5145.
